

WHERE CAN I STAY?

In the past, most people have lived near enough to be able to sleep in their own beds.

Word has spread, and we are delighted that we now have interest from further afield (and some local people seem to like camping as well!).

We do have a campsite here (look for it on our website) where you could set up your family tent or caravan, and we also have a self-catering holiday cottage.

Alternatively, there are B&B places in the area where you might go. Let us know what you would like and we will try to arrange it for you.

11-12 May 2019

A weekend of fun, singing and outdoor activities for children aged 6-12

The Taste of Morland weekend is intended as an introduction to Morland Choristers' Camp but it has taken on a life of its own as well.

WHO IS IT FOR?

We have room for up to 40 children aged 6-12 years of age and try to have equal numbers of boys & girls.

For security, feeding, etc. there should be a nominated adult (parent, teacher, choir trainer) responsible for each child. One adult can be responsible for more than one child. We usually find that these people are very keen to make themselves useful; boosting the singing and seeing to the meals, as well as looking after the children in their free time.

This year we hope to have a few 'senior' choristers. These will have been to Taste of Morland before and will be able to help the youngest members with singing and general activities.

WHO RUNS IT?

Taste of Morland takes place at Newby End Farm, home of Jenny and David Jones.

We will be singing under the expert guidance of Emma Richardson. Emma grew up in Wigton, Cumbria before studying Music at the University of Huddersfield followed by training in Secondary Education. She currently teaches at Dowdales School, Dalton-in-Furness. Over the past three years, she has been seconded to the Cumbria Music Education Hub as Area Development Manager for the Furness area, working with large groups of primary students to create performance events at local theatre spaces. Emma is thoroughly looking forward to returning to Taste of Morland again this year.

On the Saturday evening we give an informal concert. There might be a chance for you to play/sing your party-piece, so bring your instruments and music with you.

For lunch we ask you to bring enough food for you and your children to eat and we will pool it together as a bring-and-share lunch.

We will provide drinks and a cooked meal at teatime on the Saturday.

If you have any special dietary requirements or other queries about food, please get in touch with Julia Evans alexjulia@btinternet.com.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

There is a charge of £35 per child to cover tutors, music, food and administration, or £20 for senior choristers in view of their extra responsibilities. Please send this with your application.

Taste of Morland / Canon Markham Memorial Scholarship.

There is now a fund for a scholarship in memory of Canon Markham, founder of the Choristers' Camps, which makes awards to youngsters who have made a notable contribution to Taste of Morland who are going on to Morland Camp. Contributions to this fund would be appreciated, and further details of this or of Camp bursaries can be had from David Jones.
