

MORLAND CHORISTERS' CAMP TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees comprises as follows:

CLERICAL

The Dean of Carlisle

The Very Revd Mark Boyling has been a Trustee since 2004 (upon his appointment as Dean of Carlisle) and has been Chairman since 2006. Before moving to Cumbria he had served his entire ministry in the Diocese of Liverpool, including four years as personal Chaplain to the Bishop of Liverpool and 10 years as Precentor of Liverpool (the largest Cathedral in the country). He is married with two young children. His interests include liturgy and partnership in world mission. He is a keen cook and enjoys travel, with a special interest in Central and South America.

MUSIC

Marilyn Prescott GRNCM, LRAM, LTCL

A Graduate of the Royal Northern College of Music, Marilyn studied piano and viola and gained a PGCE from St Martin's College Lancaster before her appointment as music specialist at a Lancaster Primary School. Many of her piano pupils have been ABRSM prizewinners and have entered the profession as teachers or performers. Organist & Choirmaster at Morecambe Parish Church since 1983, she has been connected with the Morland Camp for over 20 years, her two children also have long associations with the Camp, and she has for many years been RSCM Lancashire Area Education & Training Officer.

MORLAND

Stewart Fyfe read Economics at university and trained in law, working as a solicitor in London before studying for the Ministry at Ridley Hall Cambridge. He was Assistant Curate in the 'Barony of Burgh' group of parishes near Carlisle, and now has responsibility for the 'North Westmorland' churches, having moved to Morland in 2010. He has a great passion for music, singing regularly in choirs and as a soloist; with principal tenor roles in Cumbria Opera and sometimes deputising in Carlisle Cathedral choir. He is a keen follower of cricket and Rugby Union; enjoys gardening, cooking, reading and birdwatching; and has an interest in history, rural affairs, sheep and cattle breeds, hill walking, steam engines and old British cars.

Marion Marr retired and moved to Cumbria in 2009, having been brought up and educated in the South of England (although her family has Northern roots). She received a degree in German and, after some time abroad, completed her PGCE and embarked on a career in primary teaching in London, specialising in music. Latterly she also worked as a Special Educational Needs consultant and in teacher training at South Bank University. Since retiring, Marion has been able to pursue several musical interests - Morland Church choir, an acapella group in Morland, the Penrith Singers, and resuming her organ studies after many decades. Marion is active in the local community, and is the compositor for the parish newsletter as well as a member of Morland School governing body.

FAMILY

Frances Yeowart (néé Markham) spent holidays in Morland House from an early age, and moved there from Grimsby at the age of ten. She has a BA in Geography from University College London, and later gained a PGCE in secondary school music at Reading University and an MA in Arts Policy & Management at Birkbeck College London, and for many years was a classical music agent and artist/concert manager. She has Grade 8 violin and piano, and plays the violin in chamber music groups and in an amateur orchestra. She was twice a member of the Camp staff in the 1970s and has been a Trustee since 1996. Three of her four children have attended Camp.

ALUMNUS

Nick Willmer joined the pastoral staff of Camp in 1978, later spent several years on the music staff, and since has fulfilled admin roles. He studied the organ, piano and singing at the Royal Academy of Music, and has directed church and school choirs, taught stringed and brass instruments, fallen asleep playing the piano for a recorder class, worked in banking and IT, and run courses on financial information and personal development, and was for many years an examiner for RSCM silver and bronze chorister awards. Nick attended Morland Camp for 40 years, in various guises, and stepped down from official duties in Autumn 2018.

STAFF

Simon Gordon (see staff list). Simon has been involved with the Morland camp since 1992, was elected to the Trustee Board in 2007, and has been House Father since 2013.

Cathy Martin (see staff list). Cathy has been involved with the Morland camp since 2002, and was appointed Administrator, part of the Senior Staff and elected to the Trustee Board in 2018.

TREASURER

David Gibson is a regular attendee at Carlisle Cathedral and a recently retired accountant, and was appointed as Treasurer to Morland Camp in Autumn 2018.
